

Special moments in New Zealand's gold mining history

Learning Focus: We are learning to find a caption to describe what is happening in a picture and then put the pictures in chronological order.

- Cut out the pictures and captions.
- Match the captions with the pictures.
- Put the pictures in chronological order (i.e. the order in which they happened 1900-1982).

1900: The Welcome Shaft at the Waihi Gold Mining Company and the men who worked there.

1921: Looking for gold in the Coromandel.

1933: The Government supervisor at Golden Hope helping two young prospectors on their gold claim.

1935: A man pushing a large wagon of soil from a mine in the Coromandel in 1935.

1935: A man pushing a large wagon of soil from a mine in the Coromandel in 1935.

1960: the Lillis brothers and their fox terrier, Jim working on the gold mining face at two different levels.

1982: Mr John Broad cleaning the upper section of one of the stampers at Coromandel with students.

Extra

- Write a diary of their experiences. What do you think it might have been like to be one of the people in these pictures.

Answers

1900: The Welcome Shaft at the Waihi Gold Mining Company and the men who worked there.

1921: Looking for gold in the Coromandel.

1933: The Government supervisor at Golden Hope helping two young prospectors on their gold claim.

1935: A man pushing a large wagon of soil from a mine in the Coromandel.

1960: The Lillis brothers and their fox terrier, Jim; working on the gold mining face at two different levels.

1982: Mr John Broad cleaning the upper section of one of the stampers at Coromandel with students.